In a time of global economic turmoil and an unprecedented number of layoffs, the key to job retention and finding work is training. Numerous reports and evidence suggest that training and education increase the chances of individuals finding and retaining employment.

“English for Job Seekers” is a new 30-lesson per week course being offered by Clubclass for individuals who are presently unemployed.

The cost of the course will be:

€120.00 per week in the low season

€150.00 per week in the high season

- Applicants who would like to join a course in Business English, Combination Course or Person to Person Course will be/are entitled to a 20% discount.
- When applying for the “English for Job Seekers” programme, applicants need to present proof that they are presently seeking employment.
