In a time of global economic turmoil and an unprecedented number of layoffs, the key to job retention and finding work is training. Numerous reports and evidence suggest that training and education increase the chances of individuals finding and retaining employment.

English for Job Seekers consists of 30 lessons/ 22½ hours tuition per week (maximum 12 students per class) and is an intensive course intended for those students who are unemployed and are looking to improve their career prospects. Students join the General English Standard course in the morning, which allows them to practice all the language skills. In the afternoon participants will have an additional 10 lessons that are devoted to speaking, with particular focus on vocabulary related to an interview scenario. This course will help students to improve their English and increase their confidence in communicating more effectively.

The cost of the course will be:

€120.00 per week in the low season

€150.00 per week in the high season

- Applicants who would like to join a course in Business English, Combination Course or Person to Person Course will be/are entitled to a 20% discount.
- When applying for the “English for Job Seekers” programme, applicants need to present proof that they are presently seeking employment.
